FISH COLLAGE

A fish collage is a fun and creative activity where children create a fish by gluing pieces of material onto a fish-shaped mold.

Recognizing Colors and Shapes.

Children choose different colored materials to create a colorful fish.

Through this activity, children learn about the different parts of a fish's body, such as the head, body, and tail.

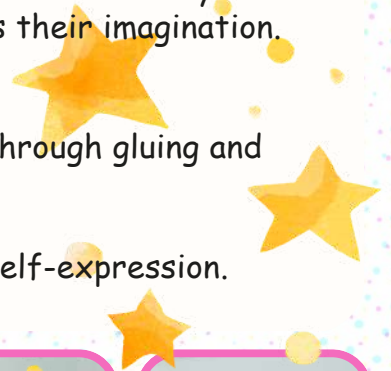

Children have the freedom to choose materials and glue them in their own way to create a fish that matches their imagination.

Goals.

Develop fine motor skills through gluing and cutting.

Encourage creativity and self-expression.

PHOTOSYNTHESIS

LEARN ABOUT PARTS OF PLANTS

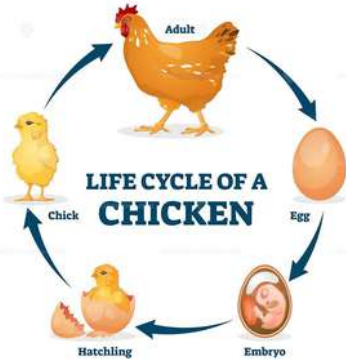

I LOVE PLANT

What is Photosynthesis ?

Photosynthesis is how plants make their own food using sunlight, water, and carbon dioxide to create sugar (food) and oxygen, which they need to grow and which we need to breathe. The process happens in the leaves, inside tiny parts called chloroplasts, where a green substance called chlorophyll traps sunlight to power the food-making reaction.

LIFE CYCLE OF A CHICKEN

Last week, Westin Kindergarten students were very happy to learn about the life cycle of a chicken. The lesson started with the egg, then continued with the egg hatching into a chick, growing bigger, and finally becoming an adult chicken that can lay eggs again.

The activities were done in fun ways, such as arranging picture cards and making simple art projects. The classroom was full of joy as the students learned while creating and playing with their friends.

From these activities, the students got many benefits. They practiced their thinking skills, learned new words, and worked together with others. They also learned to care for and respect living things around them.

SMILES IN EVERY SHADE

Joy in every moment

our little learners brighten the day with creations and joyful smiles, showing that every shade bring happiness

Creative little hands

This month, our kids in Meruya explored the beauty through fun, hands-on activities. with every cut, fold, stamp and bright piece of paper, they expressed their creativity and shared joyful moments together

THE BENEFITS OF GROUP WORK

From laughter to teamwork, the classroom was filled with smiles in every shade. every child in Meruya shined brightly, making the day memorable

LEARNING THROUGH PLAY

As they play, children try things out, test what they know, practise new skills and get better at them. They learn who they are (identity), how to get along with others (community), how to look after themselves and others (wellbeing), how to think (learn), and communicate- these are sometimes described as children developing social, emotional, thinking and physical skills

What can be done to encourage children to play?

1. Look for opportunities to extend your child's play by offering ideas or encouraging them to use equipment or toys in new or unusual ways.
2. Creative play can happen through painting, sculpting, drawing, singing, solving problems and building things
3. Quiet play can involve picture books, puzzles, dolls, colouring, beads or listening to CDs with stories.

Pop, Crumple, Glue, Create!

The children had so much fun creating popcorn art. 🍿
Each child glued a colorful popcorn box cutout onto HVS paper, then used yellow origami paper to make the popcorn. They loved crumpling the paper into little pieces and sticking it on top, watching their empty boxes slowly filled with "popcorn."

The activity gave them the chance to practice fine motor skills like folding, crumpling, and gluing, while also encouraging focus and creativity. The smiles on their faces showed just how proud they were of their finished work! ❤️

We joined in for a delightful time with crackers and a balloon dance.

We gave our all in the competition, but it simply wasn't our moment to claim victory.

Nonetheless, we had a great time and enjoyed the games with our classmates.

After the flag-raising ceremony, the excitement at Westin School continued with a series of lively Independence Day competitions. Students cheered as the tug-of-war teams pulled with all their strength, determined to win for their class. Laughter filled the air during the sack races as participants hopped awkwardly toward the finish line.

The eating crackers game brought even more fun as students tried to finish hanging crackers without using their hands, while the pencil-in-bottle challenge tested their patience and precision. Each game created unforgettable moments of joy and togetherness for everyone.

TUG OF WAR

This was the moment when we have tried to beat the others, especially Junior 1A.

We won once as we have beaten Junior 1A.

The rest of us already tired after the first game, so we lost the next game tug of war against Junior 2.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

OUR CLASS IS FULL OF ENERGY !

The sack race was the highlight of the field day, and our class was buzzing with excitement. We all lined up at the starting line, a colorful jumble of mismatched burlap sacks. Laughter erupted as Jocelyn tripped over her sack before the race even began, and Nicholas, always the comedian, started hopping in place like a kangaroo.

When the whistle blew, it was pure chaos. We all lurched forward, bumping into each other and stumbling with every hop. The crowd cheered wildly as we bounced our way down the field. Our teammate, Alex, was in the lead, a determined look on his face. But then he lost his balance and tumbled to the ground, a giggling mess. Everyone else followed suit, collapsing in fits of laughter as the race dissolved into a joyful pile of sacks and teammates. We never made it to the finish line, but we didn't care. The victory was in the fun we had together.

THE CEREMONY OF OUR NATION INDEPENDENCE DAY

In a vibrant display of unity, our entire school came together for the Indonesian Independence Day ceremony. The air buzzed with excitement as students, teachers, and staff gathered on the field.
